Introduction

Perspective—taking into view. A new building—an old building—a new teacher—an old teacher—an old book—a new book—a victory—a defeat—a smile—a frown.

These are a few of the things which the 1963-64 Searchlight has attempted to take into view as they pasted down the memories of the past year at Minot High School.

The maroon and gold trimmed doors that opened last fall to an unprecedented enrollment lead students to a face-lifted building including new science rooms, a rejuvenated theatre, hallways where walls once stood and a variety of small improvements in almost every room.

New faces in faculty as well as buildings appeared, to add to the capable staff of men and women who daily serve each student in a thorough and dedicated manner.

An accelerated and expanded curriculum combined with a myriad of extracurricular activities for the student's educational and personal development. New technical devices increased the efficiency of the administration for the convenience of both students and instructors.

As the year proceeded, a steady calendar of victories and defeats, experiences and activities gave the student body a chance to work together, on a plane of reality of modern living and yet with spirit that grew with acquaintance for the participation and enthusiasm of the school.

As we step back, we recall Minot High School as an institute of secondary education with both lively people and living purpose. We now ask you to step back and see Minot High in a perspective with your life, and your past school year in this sixty-first Searchlight.

Dedication

Many things go into the making of a city or a school. After they are first established with purpose in mind, they must then find resources of culture, education, recreation and economic growth to develop themselves into thriving and cosmopolitan entities. Minot and Minot High School have found those resources needed for growth in the Minot Air Force Base. Culture, worldly experience, unlimited talent and new ideas as well as economic gain have been drawn from nearly 15,000 people to lend an air of friendly sophistication and metropolism to life in Minot. Eleven million dollars revenue per year has contributed to the prosperity of the city; base-inspired art, home-ec. and concert groups have expanded the cultural perspective of the people; federal allotments have provided for the improvement of the educational system and a variety of cosmopolitan personalities has acquainted Minoters with faces of world life they would otherwise know only from books.

For the culture, the education, the talent, the discussions, the vital part they have played in the growth of the city the Searchlight thanks and salutes the personnel of the Minot Air Force Base.

Faculty and Administration

James F. Slocum
Supt. of Minot Public Schools

Administration

The able citizens who comprise the Board of Education execute their duties efficiently, and through their foresight and careful planning have established and met the educational needs of the growing city of Minot. Recently completed building projects have alleviated the crowded conditions which existed and varied improvement programs have been undertaken.

The head of the board, Superintendent James F. Slocum, a native of South Dakota, received his Bachelor of Arts degree at Yankton, and his Master of Arts degree from the University of South Dakota, where he majored in school administration.

The smooth functioning of the Minot Public Schools is the result of thoughtful consideration by the staff members, who constantly strive to work out the problems of the school system in the best interests of the people.

THE SCHOOL BOARD: James Slocum, Carl Carlson, Walfrid Hankla, Helen Keilhack, Roger Hanson, Peggy Uthus, Leslie Maupin, and Dr. G.H. Christensen

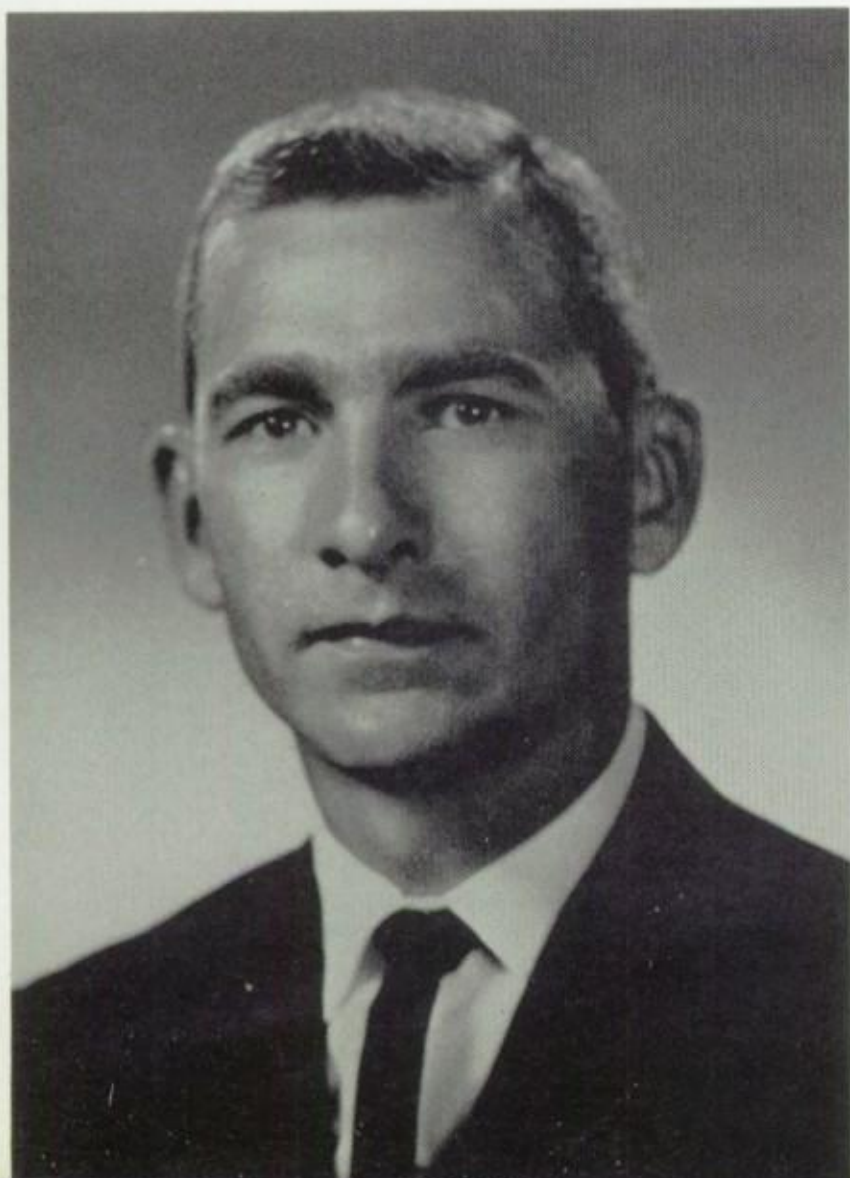

Faculty

Principal Joel A. Davy

Asst. Principal Norman Howe

Life is a challenging experience in today's complex world. It is a highly competitive world that requires many skills and talents, where the quest for knowledge never ceases. Consequently, the institution of education is a very important contribution to the success of our generation.

The school program of Minot High School is a fine example of the modern approach to education, and with its excellent staff and facilities rates highly as a secondary institution of learning. The faculty works closely with the student body to seek out and encourage the interests of the individual student. Our very capable and well-qualified instructors are not merely dispensers of information, but approachable and interested people who give friendly counsel and advice. Their personal character is an asset to the school and demonstrates to the students the importance of intellectual discipline.

Seniors

Tall, lithe, delightful Diana Breslich can be found throughout the school contributing her quiet but quick wit and abundant talent to many organizations. Besides having been home room secretary in her junior year, Diana has been busy in such groups as Math Club, Science Club, Honor Society, Symphonic Choir, Political Discussion Society and the Teenage Republicans. If, when all her activities are through and her homework is finished, Diana has time, she enjoys playing tennis, practicing the grand piano or recalling the many incidents of her 1963 summer in Europe.

Ability plus classifies senior student Jim Ribb. In addition to being a Merit Scholarship finalist and maintaining an A average, Jim has assumed the responsibilities of home room president, Red Cross representative, Publicity Chairman for Student Council, Editor-in-Chief of the High Times, organizer for the all city teenage Fire Prevention committee and first chair trombonist in the Concert Band. Reprimanding only quietly, Jim is known for his ready smile and sincere friendship.

Representative

Bob Sterud combines brains and brawn with experienced skill to be chosen as one of our representative students. Active in countless organizations throughout the school, Bob concentrates his leadership ability in the positions of Student Council president, Loyalty Day Co-captain and star halfback on the football team. He has been a delegate to Boy's State, a member of Men's Chorus, Symphonic Choir, Letterman's Club and the track and football teams for three years. Affectionately known by his friends as "Moose," Bob also finds time for Hi-Y, his own singing group, "The Off-Beats" and quick chats in the hallway with teachers and students alike.

The pep and continual enthusiasm of Yvonne Hoberg make it easy to see why she should be chosen as a representative student of Minot High School. Her warm personality and spontaneous smile carry her through a full day of classes into a realm of extracurricular activities including Tri-Y, Student Council, Pep Club and varsity cheerleading. All the while her vibrant charm and winning ways reveal the character that made her Loyalty Day Queen for 1963.

Cosmopolitan Marcy Hart has had ample opportunity to expand her knowledge of world affairs and transmit her sincerity and interest in others. She has been a home room officer for two years, a member of Honor Society, Pep Club Playmakers, Math Club, Girls' Chorus, French Club and Political Discussion; speaks fluent French and, as Minot High School's foreign exchange student, traveled to Finland last year. Quietly yet deeply concerned and engaged in the activities of MHS, Marcy lends her organization and sardonic wit to everything she does.

Unassuming charmer Ed Baker is ever busy in his many activities at Minot High. Playing the lead in the fall production of the "Music Man" or speaking out in Student Council, Ed is known for his unintentional humor and constant good will. Besides being Senior Class president, Ed has played an intricate part in the success of such organizations as Symphonic Choir, Mens' Chorus and Student Council. He was a delegate to Boys' State in 1963, a co-chairman of the Prom and is a star basketball player on the varsity squad.

Students

First chair cornet playing in Concert Band and excellent defensive plays for Minot High School's gridiron demonstrate fully the ability of representative student Curt Seibel. Active in Student Council, Honor Society, Pep Band and Concert Band, Curt has lettered in football and track and has left his mark in the minds and spirits of his fellow students.

Loyalty Day Princess Judy Chambers possesses the charm and personality that make her a truly representative student. A cheerful doer in many activities, Judy busies herself with Student Council, French Club, Pep Club, Playmakers and Tri-Y. She is easily recognized by the many who know her by her dark hair, quick laugh and friendly "Hi" as she goes about adding enthusiasm and co-operation to the many phases of life at Minot High.

Senior Class History

As the first wave of the post-war baby boom breaks through to the stream of life, they leave behind them a memory-packed history of parties, proms, parades, and pencilwork. As the first senior class to occupy the combined junior-senior high school, they utilized their added space with numerous money and fun raising projects. Their sophomore year paid witness to bake sales, sweatshirt sales, Friday night dances, and car-washes, while their junior year presented the Junior-Senior Prom, entitled "Beyond the Sea."

Although proudly proving that the school doesn't fall apart with the departure of the previous seniors; nevertheless, the class of 1964 seems thoroughly convinced that the machinery of the alma mater will disintegrate when they leave the hallowed halls of Minot High.

Student Council

Bill Gessner, Ed Baker, CheChe Oland, Joan I. Peterson, Bob Sterud, Gary Mathiason, Larry Olson, Jack Nybakken, Dale Olson.

Representative student government serves as the main purpose for Student Council. Composed of sixty members, the largest in the state, they spend their time discussing needed legislature for the school, charters for new clubs and most importantly, money-raising projects. Organizing and distributing a student benefit fund, Student Council erected a Christmas and mitten tree for the needy while conducting an inter-class competitive can goods drive. In January they acted as co-sponsors for the stroller show entitled "Once Upon a Time."

One of the major difficulties confronting Student Council, this year, as well as last, was that of reapportionment. A satisfactory arrangement called for much debate and decision.

With its many problems, projects and representatives, Student Council found itself a busy and worthwhile organization at MHS in 1963-64.

Sitting atop a huge pile of clothing are the workers who took part in the Student Council-Sponsored Bundke Drive. They are Kenny Rogers, Bruce Carlson, Susanne Charlebois, Michelle Hennefent, Bonny Ness, Barbara Miller, CheChe Oland, Linda Mattson, Linda Lyon, and Beverly Borgers.

Concert Band

A steady schedule of appearances marked the calendar of the 60th anniversary of the Minot High School Concert Band as they performed for a host of civic events, homecoming, football and basketball games. Frequently attired in full dress uniforms, the band lent an air of whole-hearted participation to many school functions in the form of Pep Band at pre-game rallies and as marching drill-team at half time entertainments. Their organized spirit was also demonstrated by the second annual candy sale which enabled the unit to purchase new instruments and provided funds for spring trips. The height of the season for the Concert Band, as well as for the Cadet and Prep Bands, came in the presentation of the Annual Spring Concert and the March "Sunday Hour of Music."

Flag bearers CheChe Oland, Susy Davy, and Candy Wolf clown with drum major Russ Stai.

Mr. Hardy Lieberg, director of the choirs

Symphonic Choir

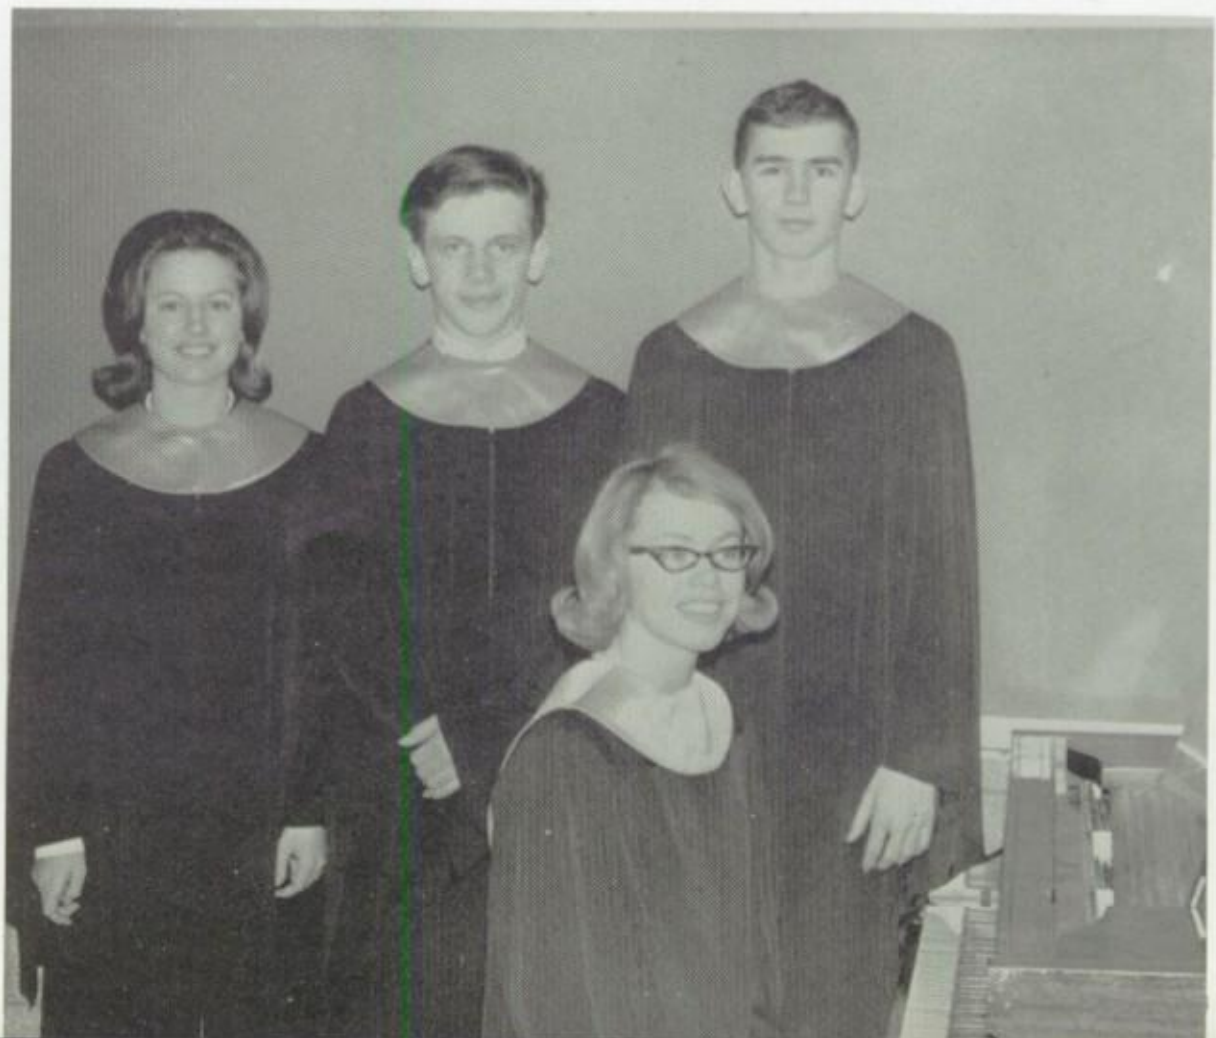

The Symphonic Choir is comprised of approximately seventy-five voices selected through audition. It is generally required that a new member has performed in one of the other vocal groups before trying out for symphonic.

Throughout the year this choir perfects about fifty compositions and major works. The music is approached from an academic view-point with much time being spent to search out the music's theory and comprehend it. The choral groups of Minot Senior High School made some eighty appearances this year including smaller groups and soloists. They have traveled throughout North Dakota and visited South Dakota and Montana. This year a tour of Canada is planned and they hope to culminate the trip in Winnipeg at the "46th Annual Music Composition Festival."

Collette Haugen, Darlene Stumbo, Carol Anderson, Susan Charley, Nancy Wralestad, Kathe Williams, Cheryl Knoepfle, Jan Winn, Janice Zimmer. Playmakers

Playmakers is an active organization which is open to all students interested in the various phases of theatrical work. The abilities and talents of these students are put to good use in committees ranging from lighting, costuming, make-up, sound, and publicity, to the actual characterization of the different roles in plays. The coordination of these committees under the advisorship of Miss Carole Gilbertson has produced a year of success for this organization beginning with the fall production of Meredith Wilson's "The Music Man" which was produced in joint cooperation between Playmakers and MHS Fine Arts department.

As the playmaker works on his committee he receives points for various projects. These points are applied toward Thespian membership.

These students have proved that the many hours of Playmaker work have paid off, giving them membership in the local chapter of the honorary National Thespian Society.

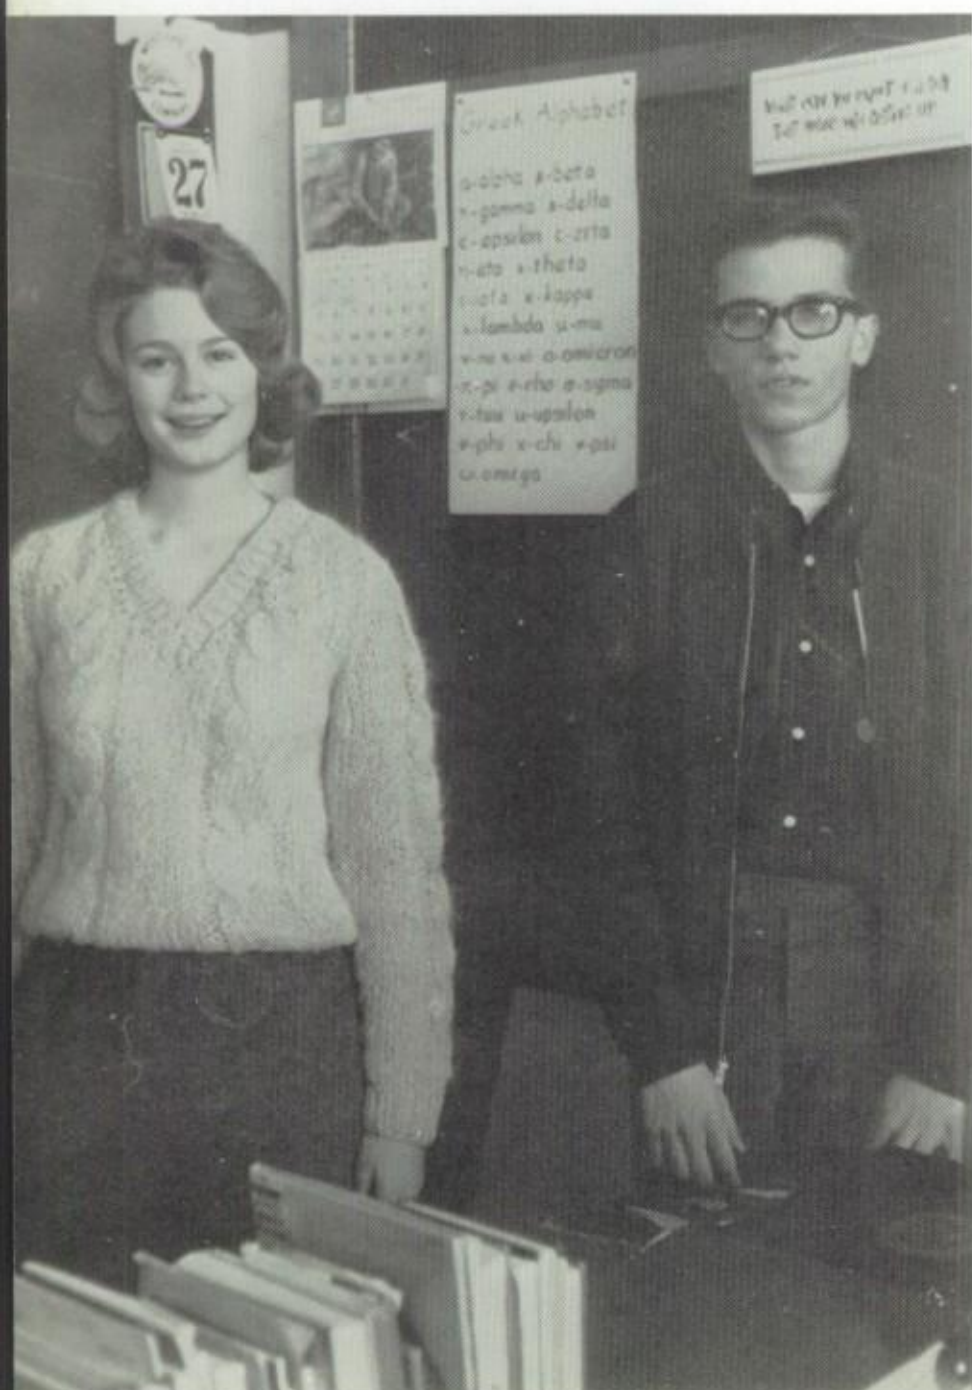

They go about their work in a sincere, devoted manner, accepting high degrees of responsibility and showing that they handle them well. Their influence has marked success in the fall's production of Meredith Wilson's "The Music Man" and in the annual Variety Show, produced in cooperation with the Student Council.

Debate

The many hours of research and argumentation needed to formulate the cases, strategies and source material used in winning create a busy and unique world of work for the twenty people involved in debate at Minot High.

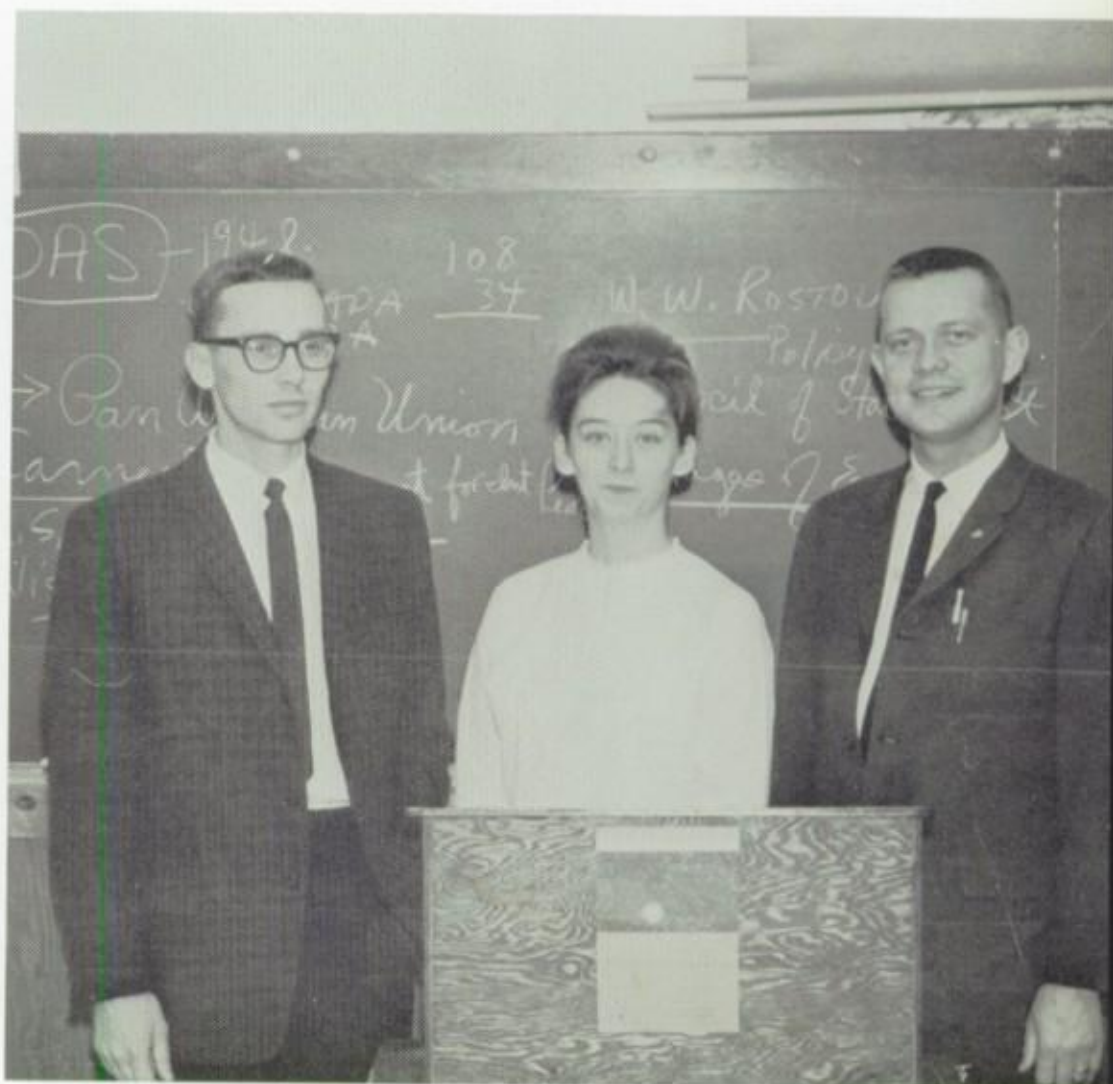

Traveling to over fifteen tournaments during the year, the debate team has captured many of the trophies offered at such meets as Carrington, Concordia, Grand Forks, Minneapolis and Mankato, Minnesota.

At the height of the season, faced by some of the states toughest competition, three MHS teams brought home four of seven trophies from the North Dakota State Debate Tournament held in Bismarck on February 21 and 22. Garry Mathiason capped first as the top speaker in the "A" division while the team placed second to Fargo and the "B" and Novice teams placed first in their divisions to bring home two more prizes for the year's booty.

Through all the stress that continually faces the debater, they find that they not only have the opportunity to display their verbal ability but also that, as a result of the vast experience in researching, they are able to organize and analyze situations otherwise incomprehensible in everyday life.

The 1963 Minot High School football team, coached by Duane Carlson, rocketed to its first Western Dakota Football Association title in ten years, with an undefeated conference record. In the season's opener—the locals suppressed eastern powerhouse, Grand Forks before defeating conference foes, Dickenson, Mandan, Bismarck and homecoming invades Jamestown.

To clinch the loop crown, the Magi then edged the Saint Mary's Saints and in the conference finale, tromped the Williston Coyotes. The lone setback of the season, in what was termed Minot's poorest game, came from the hands of the tough arch-rival, Minot Ryan..

Preseason prophecies indicated that the Magicians would at best win four and probably fewer. However, as a result of superb team spirit and desire, the Minot High School Magicians upset the odds and proved themselves "the best in the west."

The Minot High Reserves under the direction of Coach Don Klostrich in losing only one of six games proved themselves valuable to future Magi football aspirations.

Basketball

Minot High's highly rated basketball team suffered its first blow before the season began, when it was learned that 6'4" center Tom Lium would be sidelined for an indefinite portion of the season.

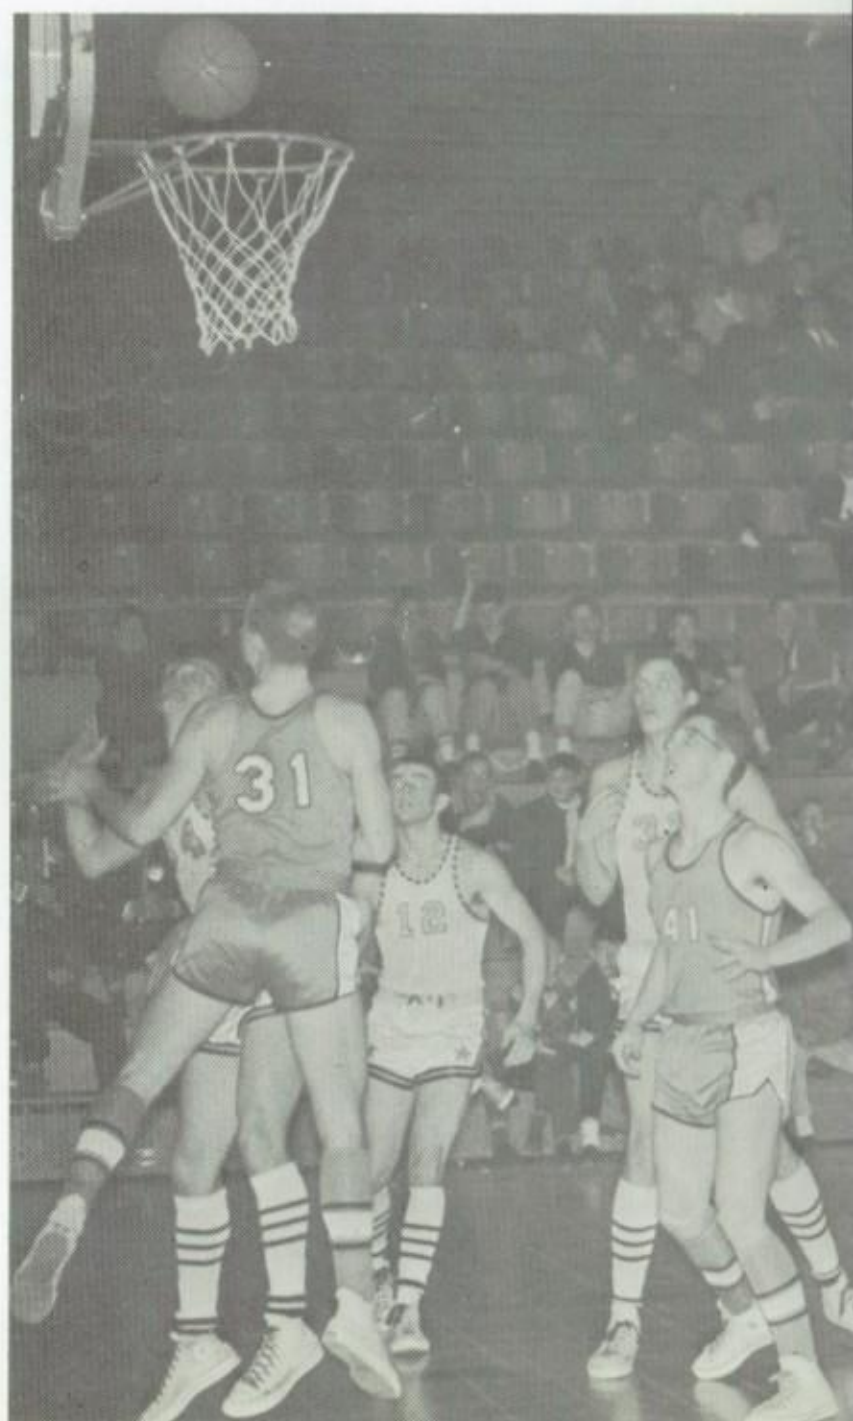

Due to a number of favorable factors, however, the Magicians proved themselves a serious threat to all opponents. First, experienced guards Eddie Baker and Brent Davy provided the team with steady backcourt strength, second, Lium returned in mid-January to torment late season Magi foes. Third, Minot High possessed the tallest front line of the state in Lium, Berryman 6'5", Jim White 6'1", and Don Kyser 6'6". These ingredients plus the capable direction of coach Art Hovde, contributed to their undefeated record in the Northwest region and the fine showing against such non-conference foes as Minneapolis, DeLasalle and Procter Minnesota.

Reserves

Under coaches Clarence Christianson and Bill Edwards the Minot High Reserves compiled a 13-7 season record. The squad comprised solely of sophomores and juniors played "B" squads of other class "A" teams and small schools within the immediate vicinity. The performance of the reserves indicates a bright future for varsity basketball.

Wrestlers

Don Klostreich's Minot High School wrestlers once again terminated the season with a fine tournament and dual meet record. The local grapplers for the second consecutive year placed first in the Northwest regional tournament, and fourth in the state. For the first time in the history of the sport at Minot High School, two boys, Brian Saunders and Loren Headrick earned state championship honors. Two Magi, Pete Hamre and Larry Zieszler received second place honors, and Wayne Rassmuson capped fourth place in the heavyweight division. Top individual records were submitted by Headrick, Hamre and Saunders, recording 24, 21, and 24 wins respectively. Headrick claimed the distinction of being undefeated throughout the year. A congratulatory hand should be extended to all wrestlers and coaches for the successful showing in this valuable team and individual sport.

Track and Field

Track and Field, an ever growing activity at Minot High School is a sport in which the athlete is forced, if his goal is success, to exert a maximum of effort. Even more so than in other sports, the practice and conditioning necessary for good performance often proves tedious and exasperating. Thus much credit should be extended to those students who excell in the various areas of track and field. Archie Peterson's 1962 track team, increased its participation to nine meets throughout the state. In addition, the Magi qualified for the State Meet in five events, and were fortunate to have Ken Reinke place in the Broad Jump.

Cross Country

This year Minot High participated in its first season of cross-country running as a varsity sport under the direction of coach Worden Kidder. The team, organized after school, was about a dozen boys working out each afternoon at one of Minot's parks or at the Public Golf course. Cross-Country is for the boy that likes to run long distances; the distance ran at the various meets participated in by Minot was 1.8 miles in length. During the practice sessions the team members would run from 2-3 miles.

Only two of our team members had ever run in a cross-country meet before, so most of the boys did not really know just what to expect until after the first meet. The squad worked faithfully and showed excellent improvement as the season progressed. The culmination of the season was the state meet held at the Valley City Country Club.

Organized to provide recognition to those students excelling in the various fields of athletics, the Lettermen's Club of Minot High School sponsors an annual awards banquet, and supports various projects throughout the school year. Any letterman is eligible to join the organization which is under the administration of Mr. Olson.

OFFICERS: Bob Sterud, Joel Davy, Mr. Olson, advisor, Pete Hamre and Curt Seibel.

Editors Dahlen and Gunn prepare to receive their just requital as proponents of this book.

The school year 1963-64 is a period that can never be reproduced. It represents a time in the life of the school made memorable and unique only by the widely-varied, singular personalities of the people who lent their animation to Minot High. In the same way, this yearbook is unique—it is composed entirely of material from the year it records. The originality embodied in the '64 Searchlight, exemplified by the adoption of the rabbit as the school mascot, the contrastive page designs, and the increased use of informal photography, parallels the general activity of our school, which during the past year has been, more than ever, imaginative and productive.

The shortcomings of this annual are many. Besides the obvious technical difficulties, the serious limitations of photography and text as media of expression hinder true depiction of such abstract qualities as emotion and sensation. We have, however, captured much of the spirit and vitality which alone make school life a pleasant and valuable experience; to the extent that we have accomplished this, we have been successful in our goal.
